

Join Us for a Webinar Pacific Northwest Regional Focus of the Fourth National Climate Assessment

May 2, 2019, 1:00 pm to 3:30 pm Pacific Time

Please join a webinar hosted by the Office of Sustainability and Climate, Northwest Climate Hub, Pacific Northwest Research Station, and Pacific Northwest Region to learn about key findings from the forests and Pacific Northwest chapters of the Fourth National Climate Assessment. The webinar will discuss findings in the context of other sub-regional and regional climate change assessments, and potential local applications of climate change information in natural resource planning and management.
